

The religious Wahhabi to his own wife: Feed my friend with your milk, otherwise I'll divorce you!

Sheikh Sham Al-din Burbuyi, one of the famous Muftis of Algeria declared that a woman complained about her husband and said that her husband had threatened her to divorce unless she fed his friend with her milk!

Sheikh Burbuyi added: we've had several cases about this fatwa. The most effective one was the case of a woman who came to me crying and complaining about her religious Wahhabi Husband who had ordered her to feed his friend with her milk. He had asked her for such a thing so that his friend would become Mahram and could have stayed with them for Ramadan month. However, the woman was badly hurt.
